For the prevention and cure
OF BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful the inventor's feelings in several parts the West Indies and in the Southern Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person be adduced, who have reason to be-ve that a timely use of this salutary redy has, under Providence, preserved ir lives when in the most alarming cir-mstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak re in favour of a medicine than coms of pompous eulogy founded on re assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously prosed as an infallible cure, but the invenhas every possible reason that can ret from extensive experience for be-ving that a dose of these Pills taken ce in every two weeks during the prelence of our bilious fevers, will prove infallible preventive; and further,
at in the earlier stages of those diseases eir use will very generally succeed in storing health, and frequently in cases teemed desperate and beyond the pow-of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly ild, so as to be used with safety by per-ns in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry superfluous bile and prevent its mord secretions—to restore and amend the ppetite—to produce a free perspiration nd thereby prevent colds which are ofen of fatal consequences. A dose never ails to remove a cold it taken on its first ppearance: they are celebrated for renoving habitual costiveness—sickness at he stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a hange of climate.

They have been found remarkably effications in preventing and curing disor-lers attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Fan-Sash Making.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and oth-ers, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in pro-curing the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.
Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

Proposals

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of

Universal History Americanised;

Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.

BY DAVID RAMSAY, M. D.

"Life is so short and time so valuable, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintes-sence." Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA.

The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations, which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, re-volutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.

The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a group-ed view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.

The European part, contains the his-tory of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the tragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, to-gether with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.

The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Ab-original or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on deli-very.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of ex-tracting the quintessence of that vo-luminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories writ-ten by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and o-ther modern authors—of the Asiatic re-searches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half cen tury have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries com paratively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal Histo-ry published their work. The arrange-ment of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Au-gustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employ-ment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transc ibing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign coun-tries is more or less expended or con-tracted in proportion to the intrinsic im-portance of each—its tendency to illus-trate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in propor-tion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical infor-mation to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the pub-lic in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U-States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble—but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provi-ded the sale is warranted by public pa-tronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and educa-tion of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep im-portance.

LINES,

On hearing that the plant called the Myasotes Arvensis. or Forget me not, was growing on the plain of Waterloo, after the battle.

There is a flow'r, whose op'ning bloom,
Beams softly o'er the hero's grave;
Whose trembling leaf and sweet perfume
Denote the dwelling of the brave.

No urn is there, that little flower
Alone remains their woes to tell;
How oft they bled in battle's hour,
How valor fought, and prudence fell!

Sweet child of spring, thy modest head
Was born to grace some happier spot;
And wilt thou bloom among the dead,
And only say "forget me not?"

"I would not leave this plain of rest
For brighter skies and milder climes;
Here I repose on honor's breast,
Unmov'd by fear, unstain'd by crimes.

At midnight oft the orphan steals
O'er me to pour the sacred tear;
And while his heart a throbbing feels,
He knows his parent's grave is here.

And shall I leave the hero's tomb,
Or mock the orphan's tender woe?
No! stranger I was born to bloom
Where streams of widow'd sorrow flow."

Guard of the midnight hour, farewell!
Still o'er the slumb'ring warrior wave;
Be mine the sacred task to tell
The charms that smile on glory's grave.

SELECTIONS
FROM LONDON PAPERS RECEIVED AT N. YORK.

Dutchess of Wellington.

We state with much concern, that the amiable dutchess of Wellington has been seriously indisposed for many days, arising from a dreadful accident—no less than the breaking one of the tendons Achilles. This lamentable occurrence arose in a singular way. The following are the facts: Her grace was reading a letter from her illustrious husband, in which he said, "in less than forty hours after the receipt of this, I shall be in London." The dutchess had proceeded thus far, when in burst the duke. In the hurried anxiety to receive his welcome embrace, she flew to his arms; but unfortunately one of her feet coming in contact with a table or chair, she fell, and met with the accident above related. A series of hysteric fits followed, and her grace did not recover till she was carried to bed. The fits arose from extreme dejection, the result of ill health for a long time past. The report yesterday was, that the dutchess was rather better, but still confined to her bed.

The Wandering Jew.

Espriella tells the following curious story: A few years ago there was a fellow with a long beard in London, who professed himself to be the wandering Jew. He declared he had been with Noah in the ark. Some person asked him which country he liked best of all he had visited in his long peregrinations; he answered, Spain, as perhaps a man would have done who had really seen all the world. But it was remarked, as rather extraordinary, that a Jew should prefer the country of the inquisition. "God bless you, sir," replied the ready rogue, shaking his head, and smiling at the same time, as if at the error of the observation, "it was long before christianity that I was last in Spain; and I shall not go there again till it is all over."

A Retort.

Lord B. who sports a ferocious pair of whiskers, meeting Mr. Curran in Dublin, the latter said, "When do you mean to place your whiskers on the peace establishment?" The former replied, "When you place your tongue on the civil list."

ALEXANDRIA:
MONDAY, APRIL 6, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Saturday, April 4.

The proposition of Mr. Claiborne, respecting which I dropt you an intimation in my last letter, was on Thursday bro't forward in form of two resolutions—one to request the President to order gold medals to be struck off to be presented to major-general William Carroll, and to brigadier-general John Coffee, for their gallantry and good conduct in the late war—the other to order a gold medal to be struck off and presented to major-general Joseph Desha for his gallantry and good conduct also.

General Harrison said he had borne testimony to the merits of general Desha in his official report of the action on the Thames—and said that as general Wm. Henry had also distinguished himself on that occasion, the same reward ought to be extended to him too, and moved to have his name included in the resolution. Mr. Ogle wished to have it extended to the revolutionary officers who distinguished themselves.

You may conclude that where so many gallant officers were the subject, much was said in praise of heroism. Panegyric puffed its cheeks till they were ready to crack. And yet that had not the effect of quieting opposition, which boldly asserted that it was neither customary nor proper, in voting such rewards, to go below the commanders of armies, who being exposed to all the disgrace in case of defeat, ought to reap the highest rewards without corivalry. Mr Colston, who said this, instanced too the evils of making those rewards too common, in the case of Virginia, whose legislature had to appropriate fifteen thousand dollars at one time for the purchase of medals.—[This was propagating honors with a vengeance—aye, till honors were as plenty as hobnails, as Falstaff says of some honors of another kind.]

Mr. Hopkinson endeavored to dissuade the house from adopting the resolutions. These honors were all they had to give—they ought therefore to be sparing of them, and not so cheapen them that they would cease to be a distinction. Instead of confining these honors to proper occasions, all history (Mr. H. said) did not publish so many of them as the history of this country for the last two or three years. And general S. Smith reminded the house that the grant of gold medals was always held a higher honor than that of a sword, and that, therefore, they were generally confined to commanders in chief, and swords to inferior officers.—The resolutions, however, were carried by 58 to 54 votes.

Legislators, who wish to have a clear idea of the nature of the subject of national rewards, would do well to read Mr. Windham's celebrated speech, in which he assigned his reasons for refusing to vote for burying Mr. Pitt, whom he nevertheless had acted with, and loved and honored, at the public expense.

We learn that Mr. Politicca, present secretary to the Russian embassy at London, has been appointed by the emperor of Russia his minister extraordinary near the United States. Mr. Politicca was here formerly as secretary of legation to count Phalen. He was preparing to depart for this country at the last accounts from London. This appointment, we learn, is made in place of baron Von Tuyl, who will continue in Europe

[Baltimore American.

The celebrated comic performer of Paris, Brunet, assigns a very sufficient reason for the restriction which he has placed upon the liberty of his children in preventing them from visiting the theatre.—By seeing and laughing at me, says he, in my ridiculous characters, they will be insensibly led to diminish that portion of filial respect which it is the first duty of children to preserve towards their parents. [Charleston Times.

The late intelligence from the Mediterranean, if true, speaks the fate of Algiers in language too plain and prophetic to be misunderstood. If an English consul has been so abused—if the head of the son has been struck off before the eyes of his father—if his daughter has been consigned to a seraglio—Algiers will be razed to its foundation, and reduced to a heap of ashes. It is such an outrage as will, in all human probability, lead to a conjunction of all Christian powers for the extirpation of these savages. It may lead to the project of Sir Sidney Smith, for all nations to unite in preserving a permanent force in the Mediterranean to burn, sink and destroy the fleet of these barbarians. That a treaty should bind ruffians, whose very principles of faith lead to a systematic violation of all treaties formed with Christian powers, is indeed one of those lamentable falacies which nothing but a catastrophe of this kind is capable of dissolving. We lament this individual misfortune as deeply as any Englishman can do, but something of this kind seems indispensible to rouse the torpid apathy of the Christian world. The mysterious dispensations of Divine Providence are only seen by the torch of prophecy. There is a time predicted of the return of the Jews to Jerusalem, the land of their fathers. As if to accomplish this great event, the powers of Barbary are continually perpetrating outrages on the commerce of the Christians, so much superior to them in physical strength and the means of annoyance. These powers are constantly thus provoked to hostility, and the consequence may be the accomplishment of divine prophecy. [Fed. Repub.

INDIAN WAR.

Extract of a letter from major Brown, district paymaster U. S. army, dated Milledgeville, March 18, to a friend in this place.

It is impossible for me to throw any accurate light on the late report of gen. Gaines and major Wright's loss, though, as I am near the scene of action, (and as reports generally become erroneous as they travel) I am probably able to give you more information than what you receive through the medium of the public prints. The fate of the general and his party certainly appears to be involved in some obscurity, as I have just conversed with a gentleman direct from the Agency, that reports, while he was there an express arrived from Fort Scott, bearing tidings of the disaster above alluded to—since that time no possitive account has been received; though, by a letter from Hartford, Geo. it is said the general is not drowned. As the report of his having been drowned has never been in circulation here, this cannot be considered as a satisfactory contradiction of the former one. I think, however, we may flatter ourselves that the hero of Erie still lives, judging alone from his military knowledge and experience, for it must have been something of an important nature that could have induced him to embark in so hazardous an enterprize with so small a force.

The Upper Creeks have joined the army at Fort Scott with 2000 warriors, all anxious to take the field against their turbulent neighbors. They are under the command of M'Intosh and Lovett, two of their most distinguished chiefs

The army will consist of from four to five thousand men, and if the savages can be brought to action we shall have no more complaints from that quarter of our country.

THE TWIN SISTERS.

The following communication was promised to our readers some weeks since; but its author was anxious for another opportunity of verifying the impressions he had formed by personal inspection. The following is furnished as the fruit of his recent researches. We must confess that his description is very singular and surprising—if true, it would add new force to the remark of Hamlet, that "there are more things in heaven or earth, than are dreamed of in our philosophy" But however strange it may appear, we have no doubt it presents a perfect transcript of the author's impressions. He is well known, a citizen of this place, whose veracity has never been impeached

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ENQUIRER.

Sir—During my excursion in the country last week, I was induced to visit the two remarkable young twin ladies, to whom is attributed the remarkable faculty of knowing each other's thoughts, of whom some notice was taken last winter in some of the newspapers printed in this state. Having been in the habit of visiting occasionally for several years past the neighborhood where they live, and having repeatedly heard from such good authority that left no doubt on my mind that they did possess the remarkable faculty of knowing each other's thoughts and feelings, when separate from each other, I feel warranted, having seen them myself, to exhibit the evidence of this faculty; and having tried the thing to the entire satisfaction of my mind, I feel entirely justifiable in giving it as my decided opinion that all that has been attributed to them on this subject is correct.—When I was first introduced into their company on this occasion, they shewed some aversion to afford me the satisfaction I wished; but at length complied.—They accordingly were placed, as I wished them—one above stairs and the other in the room where I sat—there could not have been the least chance for any sign to have been given. One would seem to fix her mind on a subject, quite immaterial what, and would communicate in a whisper what she was thinking about, and immediately I would ask the one above stairs what she was thinking about, and the answer would be the same. This I think was tried no less than twenty times without failing in one instance; the word however that was frequently used to convey the idea was not always the same.

After they had gone on for some time in their own way expressing their thoughts on such subjects as would occur to them, without asking them any questions or endeavoring to make them think on such subjects as would be proposed, more fully to satisfy my mind that the subjects which they had been thinking on so precisely alike had not been previously arranged, so as to follow each other as for them to understand them, I, with others of the company in the room, put to them several questions on various subjects, to which answers were given by them as readily and as correctly as had been done on the previous questions: a few of which I will state.—While one of the young ladies was sitting opposite a window and seemed to be noticing the appearance of the weather, she was asked what she thought of the weather? her reply was, she thought it would snow before the next night. She was then asked if she had any other ideas connected with the one just expressed relative to the state of the weather, (at which moment a number of snow birds were to be seen in the yard;) her reply was, that she thought the snow birds staid much longer this spring than usual. The same question was asked the one above stairs, who expressed the same opinion respecting the snow birds.

After some time had elapsed and the conversation turned on other subjects, this young lady, just as in common conversation speaking of a certain gentleman who was a widower and had, it was said, come in from Kentucky a short time previous to that, for the purpose of getting a wife, this lady observed with considerable humor, that she was very sorry he had been disappointed. The one up stairs was then asked what she was then thinking about. She replied as humorously as the other had done, mentioning the name of the man who had just been alluded to, that she was very sorry that he had been disappointed, and if he would come again he should not go back as he came. There happened at that time to be a gentleman in the room who was a widower, who to satisfy his own curiosity and remove his particular doubts as to what he was witnessing, desired the lady down stairs to have the goodness to think something about him. She fixed her eye on him for a moment, replied, his cravat was not tied on as a widower's should be. He asked the one above stairs, what she was thinking about. She replied, his cravat was not tied with a widower's knot. This appeared quite to satisfy him as to the matter.

In this way they continued for several hours, without, as I have just stated, failing to express in substance the same things whenever they were asked.

A few having seen and conversed with these ladies, as I have done, and from time to time when I have been in that neighborhood, conversed with so many different persons of respectability who are well acquainted with these girls, strange and unaccountable as it may seem to be! I must be a sceptic not to believe it.—It is a subject of as much notoriety in that part of the country as that there are two such persons living there. I however met with some persons who knew them very well, who seem to doubt the truth of what they have heard of them; but in every case that I see, they were persons who had never seen them try their faculty.

Those young ladies are 21 years of age; they are remarkably healthy, well-looking girls; I weighed them twice during the day that I was in their company. There was about one pound difference in their weight. Their features, complexion and gestures, are so precisely alike that I could not distinguish one from the other. Their parents informed me, and it is what is generally said of them, that when one is sick, the other is sick; what one dislikes, the other dislikes; what pleases one, pleases the other; and an injury done to one, is received in the same way by the other; that each of them, if I mistake not the number, has had three teeth extracted for the tooth-ache, and all the same teeth; and that they have both now one decayed tooth, and that is the same tooth.

These parents have had 6 children at three births; five of whom are living—the two alluded to are of the second birth of twins; one of those of the first birth died when young; the other is still living, is about 30 years of age, and he is a perfect dwarf, not weighing more than 56 lbs. All the rest of these children are remarkably robust and hearty, and rather above the common size. The other two twins are not yet fully grown; but nothing remarkable has been discovered about them. They live about 55 miles from this place, and in the lower part of the county of Fluvanna, near the line of Goochland and Louisa; and should any persons feel sufficient curiosity to induce them to visit these remarkable persons, and judge for themselves, directions to the house can easily be obtained.

AN ACT

To authorise the mayor to issue permits for retailing ale, beer, porter and cider.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Common Council of the town of Alexandria, That it shall be the duty of the mayor to grant his permit to such person or persons as may apply for the same, to sell ale, beer, porter and cider, provided the applicant or applicants produce to him a certificate signed by six or more respectable freeholders in his or their neighborhood, that he or they applying are respectable citizens of the town.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That previous to the granting such permit the person making application shall produce to the mayor the treasurer's receipt for ten dollars for such permit, which shall be in force for one year from the date thereof.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That so much of a section of an act entitled an act for raising a revenue, &c. passed 5th day February, 1800, as comes within the purview of this act, shall be and is hereby repealed.

Section 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall commence and be in force from and after the passing thereof.

Re-sale of Valuable Lands,

FOR READY MONEY

THE terms of a former sale not having been complied with, in pursuance of a decree of the United States' circuit court of the District of Columbia, for the county of Alexandria, directing a re-sale of the tract of land called the Glebe Lands, in case the terms of the former sale should not be complied with, we, the subscribers, shall, as commissioners under the decree of the circuit court of the District of Columbia, for the county of Alexandria, expose to sale for ready money at public auction, on Saturday the 18th day of April next, on the premises, that desirable Tract of Land, in the county of Alexandria, commonly called the Glebe Lands, situate about 2 miles from Georgetown ferry and 7½ from Alexandria, containing 566 acres, by survey;—one half of which is well timbered with oak, hickory and chesnut. It is handsomely situated, good water, and a fine young orchard of the best selected apples and cherries. The land will be sold agreeably to survey, more or less. The title papers may be seen at any time on application to the subscribers. The sale to commence at 12 o'clock.

Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, about 2000 acres of land in Fairfax county, not more than from seven to nine miles from Alexandria. The property is well watered, has a sufficiency of wood, and (judging from the condition of small and well cultivated farms that adjoin it,) it is highly susceptible of improvement.—It is at present divided into tenements, of from one to two hundred acres, each provided with a dwelling house, out houses, a garden and orchard; and might, of course, be laid off into four or five very compact farms. The principal object of the subscriber, being the introduction of a good system of husbandry into his neighbourhood, he will sell on very moderate terms, give a long credit on the whole amount of the purchase money, and require no other interest, than what the present rent of the land pays, being about 3 per cent. on its estimated value.

Aromatic Snuff

FOR CATARRH & HEAD-ACHE

This Snuff, as celebrated for its agreeable fragrance, as for its efficacy in the cure of recent catarrh, and slow nervous head ache, is used, and approved, by the present professor of chemistry in the university of Cambridge in Massachusetts; and by some of the most respectable gentlemen of the faculty in the U. States.—It is also particularly recommended by Dr. Waterhouse, late professor of the theory and practice of physic, in the above seminary; whose certificate accompanies each bottle.—Sold by French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

I will give the above reward, if secured in any jail, so that I get him again, and will pay all reasonable charges if brought home. Masters of vessels and others are forewarned from employing or carrying off said servant at their peril. C. F. WHITING.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on Tuesday, the 24th March, from the service of Martin Maddox, to whom he was hired for one year, my Negro Boy BEN. He is about 18 years of age, dark complexion, may be called black, a well made active fellow, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high—his clothing not known, with the exception of a pair of blue or black pantaloons, of velvet or corduroy.

Ben was last year hired to Mr. Charles Scott, of Alexandria, (who kept the livery stable) to which place it is presumed he may have gone, with an intention of getting on the northward. I will give for his apprehension on this side of the Potomac 20 dollars, or 30 dolls. should he be taken on the north of the same, and secured in jail so that I get him again.

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received, direct from the proprietors, the following valuable MEDICINES, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a family medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great, that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a stereotype label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the label the words, "Samue Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's celebrated Eye Water.

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources.—Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment,

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles,

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Thompson's Aromatic Tooth Paste,

For whitening and preserving the teeth—it may be used with the greatest safety Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which, in almost every case, gives instant relief in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir, for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

For sale, in Alexandria, by Dr. Rich'd H. Little; in Washington City, by Dr. David Ott; in Georgetown, by Dr. John Ott, Otho M. Linthum & Co. and Nathaniel Jewitt.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment to such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits	Indigestion
Loss of appetite	Melancholy
Impurity of blood	Gout in the stomach
Hysteric affection	Pains in the limbs
Inward weaknesses and debility	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
